Hellenic Studies

The Minor in Hellenic Studies is an interdisciplinary program for students interested in obtaining an understanding of Modern Greek language, culture, and society in relation to ancient Greek and Byzantine civilizations. The minor is organized around areas relevant to Hellenic Studies (of the student’s choice).

Requirements for the minor in Hellenic Studies

The Minor in Hellenic Studies is an interdisciplinary program for students interested in obtaining an understanding of Modern Greek language, culture, and society in relation to ancient Greek and Byzantine civilizations.

The minor is organized around areas relevant to Hellenic Studies (of the student’s choice). Courses offered for the minor must be taken for a letter grade. All courses offered for the minor must be passed with a grade of C or higher. Completion of the minor requires 21 credits. At least nine of the 21 credits must be taken at Stony Brook, with three of the courses at the upper-division level. Students wishing to pursue a minor in Hellenic Studies must develop a specific plan for its completion in consultation with the designated advisor. An example of an acceptable distribution would be the following:

A. Two 100-level courses
B. Two 200-level courses
C. Three 300-level courses, with option of substituting one 400-level course for one of the three 300-level courses

Notes:
If students do not have competency in Modern Greek language, they are required to successfully complete the Modern Greek language courses at the Intermediate level. Students are strongly encouraged to participate in the Summer study abroad program in Greece.
